Assisted refuse collection

CBC offers an assisted refuse collection service to provide support to residents who are unable to present their wheeled bin for collection due to disability or other circumstances. Temporary assistance may also be granted where appropriate, for example, short-term illnesses, injuries or pregnancy.

During 2010-2011 there were approximately 2000 people receiving assisted refuse collection from Chesterfield Borough Council.